

2020 PLENARY PRESENTERS

NORMAN ENG
EducationXDesign

MARLA THOMPSON
Life University

TODD ZAKRAJSEK
University of North Carolina

Bring a colleague, or even a whole team, to Austin Texas to gain evidence-based strategies applicable to the classroom. Acquire skills that can be put to immediate use to transform your teaching, empower your students, and improve their academic success.

JOIN US

January 9-11, 2020

DoubleTree Hotel | Austin, TX

REGISTRATION

Registration Rate: $525

(Prices increase to $600 on Dec. 16)

INCLUDES: All conference sessions & materials, refreshments, breakfast on Fri. & Sat., lunch on Fri. & Sat., and a reception Fri. evening.

Join us in the “live music capital of the world” this January to expand teaching techniques and implement ideas that improve, increase, and strengthen student learning. Registration is open, and we are accepting poster proposals through December 6th. Tracks Include: Assessment; Classroom Technologies; Course (re) Design; Diversity/Inclusion; Engaging and Motivating Students; and Teaching Online.

Austin, Texas is a burgeoning cultural center filled with art and live entertainment, and ranks in the top 10 U.S. cities for BBQ! It has gained popularity as a travel destination by foodies, music lovers, and families alike. A complimentary shuttle to downtown Austin will be provided for conference attendees on Thursday and Friday evenings. After the sessions are done for the day, participants may explore all this amazing city has to offer.

“I learned so much and really appreciated the supportive and positive atmosphere”

FEBRUARY 27-29, 2020 in Sunny San Diego!
TEACHING FOR ACTIVE & ENGAGED LEARNING

Join us in San Diego this February to expand your evidence-based teaching techniques and implement ideas that improve, increase, and strengthen student learning.

Lilly-San Diego features plenary presentations by industry experts, 60-minute interactive concurrent sessions, 30-minute information-driven presentations of research, facilitated round table discussions, and poster presentations. We are currently accepting poster proposals through Jan. 31. All proposals undergo blind-peer review.

Tracks include: Assessment; Classroom Technologies; Course (re)Design; Engaging/Motivating Students; Self-Care & Work/Life Balance; and Teaching Online.

The conference venue, The DoubleTree Hotel San Diego - Mission Valley, is conveniently located next to a trolley stop, which offers easy transportation to a variety of the city's top attractions, including the Gaslamp Quarter, Balboa Park, the San Diego Zoo, Old Town San Diego, and Seaport Village.

REGISTRATION

Registration is OPEN and includes all conference sessions & materials, morning coffee breaks, afternoon refreshments, breakfast and lunch on Friday & Saturday, and a reception Friday.

Early Bird Rate: $475

Regular Rate: $525

On-site Rate: $600

(Through December 11)

(Dec. 12- Jan. 27)

(After Jan. 27)

Team rates available for groups of 3 or more from the same institution. For details, please contact us directly at registrar@lillyconferences.com

2020 PLENARY PRESENTERS

JENNIFER IMAZEKI
San Diego State University

KEVIN KELLY
Association of College and University Educators

HARRIET SCHWARTZ
Carlow University

TODD ZAKRAJSEK
University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

"There is such a variety of topics and I always come away inspired by my peers."

LILLY-BETHESDA – MAY 27-29, 2020

Join us this May to enhance and enrich your teaching toolbox. Acquire skills that can be put to immediate use to transform your teaching, empower your students, and improve their academic success.

Lilly Conferences are designed to create a community of learners where we share and discuss scholarly work, establish professional contacts, and promote collaborations among participants. Presentations address contemporary issues in higher education and include proven, innovative pedagogies. Tracks/Subthemes include: Assessment; Classroom Technologies; Course (re)Design; Engaging/Motivating Students; Service Learning; and Teaching Online.

Bethesda, one of the most renowned communities in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area, is a thriving urban center known as the go-to place for ethnic restaurants, great shopping, and inspiring artists and art venues. The newly renovated Bethesda Hyatt Regency is centered in the heart downtown Bethesda with over 200 restaurants, theaters, galleries, and boutiques within walking distance of the hotel. There is also a Metro subway station below the hotel, providing direct access to Washington D.C.'s monuments, museums, attractions.

~98% of post-event survey respondents in 2019 said they were satisfied with the overall conference and the extent to which it created both a sense of community, and a safe environment to express professional reflections.

"I felt like everyone cared about each session and presenter."

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Call for Proposals is OPEN through February 14th. Educators are encouraged to submit proposals to present their scholarly work. To be accepted, presentations must:

- Demonstrate scholarly teaching
- Build upon a foundation of published literature
- Be applicable across disciplines
- Provide stated learning objectives
- Include active learning exercises/guided participation of the audience*

if requesting a 60-minute session*

All proposals undergo blind-peer review. We greatly value the contribution of the review process and thank all of our reviewers for their time and efforts.

REGISTRATION

Registration is OPEN and includes: all conference sessions & materials, morning coffee breaks, afternoon refreshments, and some meals. Register by January 6th to save $50 with the Early Bird Rate. See our website for more details.

Early Bird Rate: $475 ($525 after Jan. 6)

LILLY-ASHEVILLE – AUGUST 5-7, 2020

INNOVATIVE STRATEGIES TO ADVANCE STUDENT LEARNING

Bring a colleague, or even a whole team, to Asheville, North Carolina to gain evidence-based strategies applicable to the classroom. Acquire skills that can be put to immediate use to transform your teaching, empower your students, and improve their academic success!

We invite faculty, administrators, graduate students, and staff who are committed to improving teaching to join us this summer to model, share, and critique scholarly work. Session themes include: Assessment; Classroom Technologies; Course (re)Design; Diversity/Inclusion; Engaging/Motivating Students; Service Learning and Teaching Online.

From cruising the awe-inspiring Blue Ridge Parkway to discovering one-of-a-kind artwork in downtown galleries, Asheville, North Carolina -coined the “Paris of the South” is a treasure trove of attractions. Foodandwine.com says Asheville is a melting pot of art, culture, architecture, spectacular beer, and a food scene that rivals any city in the country. The conference venue, the DoubleTree Hotel is 1 block away from the enchanting historic shopping district of Biltmore Village, 2 blocks from Biltmore Estate, and 2 miles from beautiful Downtown Asheville.

Upcoming Deadlines

- 1) Registration is OPEN. Early Bird Rates are in affect until May 1. Register early to save!
- 2) We are currently accepting proposals for all session types through April 10. Visit our website for more information on presenting your scholarly work.

“I love it that we can share best practices and initiatives and discuss challenges.”

3 Reasons to Attend

1) Improve Student Learning
Learn techniques and implement ideas that increase teaching satisfaction and improve student learning.

2) Networking Opportunities
We aim to promote collaborations that extend beyond the conferences into lifelong collegial friendships.

3) Share Scholarly Work
We provide a supportive environment to disseminate proven, innovative pedagogies and learn from each other.

SAVE THE DATE!

October 15-17, 2020

Park Place Hotel
Traverse City, MI

REGISTRATION

Early Bird Rate: $475

(Prices increase to $525 on Aug. 1)

INCLUDES: All conference programming, materials, and resources; morning coffee breaks and afternoon refreshments; breakfast and lunch on Friday and Saturday; and a reception.

Group rates are available.
Contact us for more info.

ADVANCING TEACHING & LEARNING amongst the fall foliage IN NORTHERN MICHIGAN

We invite faculty, administrators, graduate students, and staff who are committed to improving teaching, to expand their evidence-based teaching techniques and implement ideas that improve, increase, and strengthen student learning. Join us in Traverse City, MI next October to acquire skills that can be put to immediate use to transform your teaching, empower your students, and improve their academic success.

The historic Park Place Hotel sits in the heart of Traverse City within walking distance of unsurpassed beaches, a variety of shops, restaurants, and attractions. Traverse City offers unique boutiques and galleries; 40+ wineries; microbreweries; and a wide variety of nationally-renowned restaurants, earning them a spot in one of the country's "Top Five Foodie Towns" by Bon Appetit. It also offers beautiful fall colors and was named by TripAdvisor.com as one of "America's Top 10 Fall Foliage Destinations."

We encourage educators to submit proposals to present their scholarly work at next year's conference. All proposals undergo blind-peer-review by faculty from institutions across the United States and abroad.

Registration and the Call for Proposals will open in November. Check our website soon for more details!

"This is one of my favorite conferences because of the session type and quality, as well as the opportunities to network."

LILLY INSTITUTE

ON CREATING ACTIVE AND ENGAGED CLASSROOMS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

March 25-26, 2020

DoubleTree Hotel - RTP
Durham, North Carolina

WWW.LILLYINSTITUTES.COM

REGISTRATION

Regular Rate: $550

(Increases to $650 after Mar. 1)

Includes: 2 full days of programming, materials & resources, breakfasts & lunches, and hosted reception.

By devoting 2 days to this workshop participants will:

- Learn the rationale behind effective teaching by better understanding the psychology of learning.
- Participate in a variety of engaged teaching and learning strategies that may be adapted to any classroom.
- Create assessments to gauge the effectiveness of any new teaching strategies.
- Network with others to form a supportive learning community designed to extend beyond this workshop.

INTEGRATE PRINCIPLES OF LEARNING WITH TEACHING STRATEGIES TO INTENTIONALLY IMPROVE STUDENT SUCCESS

Are you looking for fresh ideas and teaching strategies that increase student motivation, participation, and performance? Join Todd Zakrajsek to learn how to transform your classroom into a dynamic environment of curious learners. It will be a teaching and learning journey of discovery, understanding, and application.

Discover the science behind basic principles of how students learn and specific strategies you can incorporate into your higher education classrooms to improve student engagement and learning. Experience hands-on demonstrations of teaching methods to engage students with course content. The methods described will be demonstrated throughout the workshop.

The DoubleTree Hotel boasts a resort-style atmosphere with charming southern-style features. Participants may utilize the complimentary shuttle-service to RDU International Airport and any of the many restaurants within a 5-mile radius. For attendees wanting to explore further, the hotel is within just 15 minutes of both downtown Raleigh and downtown Durham. Come see the culture of art and creativity expressed through visuals, performances, and food in the Triangle Region with its culinary delights, university gardens, art and history museums, and so much more!

FACILITATED BY: Todd Zakrajsek, PhD, University of North Carolina

Todd has published and presented widely on the topic of effective teaching and student learning. He currently serves in leadership roles for several educational efforts, sits on journal editorial boards, and directs five Lilly Conferences.

JAN. 28	Don't Get Caught Teaching a Myth
FEB. 11	Empowering Students to Become Better Learners
MAR. 24	Sparking Student Engagement
APR. 21	Ready, Set, Learn!
MAY 12	The Secrets of Getting Published
JUN. 16	Free Tech Tools to Energize and Engage your Students

REGISTRATION $149.00 per connection
Access to Recording available for 1 full year from date of broadcast.

FACILITATED By Todd Zakrajsek, PhD

MODERATED By Kathryn Smith, MS

More information on individual webinars, registration, and more coming soon!